The Dubare Camp is the place where elephants are trained for the famous Mysore Dasara. One could witness different procedure involved in bringing up the elephants right from feeding to training session by Mahout. After having spent the good moments in the company of elephants, we head towards Neeleshwar where hermitage is environmentally sensitive place to take a break, slow down and enjoy some distance from a busy life among humbling scenery in exotic locations. From here, we board the train to Palakkad to experience the local activities. The history of Palakkad dates back to the Paleolithic period; several megalithic relics have been found in the region. Continuing the trip with same spirit, we reach the terminal destination of Cochin where we witness such an intriguing mix: giant fishing nets from China, a 400-year-old synagogue, ancient mosques, Portuguese houses and the crumbling remains of the British Raj.
