This two-week stay will first take you to Khmer land, to discover Siem Reap and its surroundings, with a visit to the wonderful temples of Angkor, Lac Tonlé Sap and its floating villages.

During the second week, you go to Thailand, for new experiences. Stroll to the floating markets of Amphawa, and taste the local flavors. Then take the road to Kanchanaburi, for an unusual encounter with pachyderms.

Ideal time to travel: November to March

Day 1. Welcome to Siem Reap

Bangkok 📍

Siem Reap 📍

- Welcome by your driver upon your arrival at the airport. Transfer and installation at your hotel. Rest of the day free.

Rooms available from 2 p.m. If you arrive a little early and your room is n't ready yet, you can drop off your bags at reception before going for a walk in town or relaxing by the pool.

- In tuk-tuk we make a first tour of exploration and location of Siem Reap: city tour, market, surrounding fields, etc.
- The visit of the musée national d'Angkor will inform you in detail about the history of the Khmer civilization and its cultural heritage. Its collections include real treasures from the Angkor archaeological site and bear witness to the richness of Khmer art. You will particularly appreciate the superb gallery of 1000 Buddhas and the magnificent presentation of the temples.
- Overnight at La Niche D'Angkor Boutique Breakfast at the hotel

- English-speaking guide included on this day

Day 2. The majestic Angkor temples

Siem Reap 📍

- Before visiting the temples, at the entrance to the archaeological site, fly away in a hot air balloon to enjoy a breathtaking view of the site of Angkor and its surroundings.

Note: vertical ascent of about 10 minutes; possible modification according to the weather.

- Day visit in a tuktuk of the marvelous temples of Angkor located around and inside the Angkor Thom.

You will notably discover Angkor Wat, symbol of the apogee of the Khmer Empire under the Angkorian era. Inside Angkor Thom, discover Bayon and its many towers with gigantic faces, Baphuon and its gigantic 40m reclining Buddha statue, Phimeanakas, the Terrasse des Elephants and its great diversity of sculptures, but also the Terrasse du Roi Leper.

Conclude the day with a visit to Ta Prohm famous for its huge trees with sprawling aerial roots.

Possibility of making the visits in the opposite direction to avoid the crowds. Just let your guide know at the start of the day.

Temples are sacred places, avoid short clothes, cover your shoulders and wear pants or a long skirt.

In order to preserve these fragile monuments, it is forbidden to touch the sculptures or to sit on elements of the temple.

In Cambodian culture, it is offensive to heckle inside a sacred place, calm and respect are key words.

It is not recommended to buy items or sweets from child sellers, this only encourages begging and the practice of skipping school, prefer a donation to an association if it is important to you.

If you wish to photograph the monks (called Bonzes), you must obtain their permission beforehand. In addition, you must not touch them, they have the right to touch you but not the opposite.

- In the evening, attend an unforgettable a circus show with artists of incredible talent!

Note: Class B seat included

- English-speaking guide included on this day

🚗 14km - ⌚ 40m
Siem Reap 📍

- Transfer to the village of Kampong Pluk located on the lake Tonlé Sap about 1 hour by car from Siem Reap. You embark on a private boat to discover and visit the floating village. During the excursion, small canoes will take you around in the middle of the mangrove forest.

Note: during the dry season (from March to September), the excursion can be replaced by another visit depending on the water level.

- In the afternoon, we visit the organization APOPO and its famous demining rats whose powerful sense of smell makes it possible to detect antipersonnel mines with more efficiency and less risk than a metal detector. We will learn more about the mission of this association and the development of their activity for medical purposes.
- Finally, we visit the Lotus Farm by Samatoa, a unique production workshop in the world presenting the method of manufacturing the most ecological fabric from lotus fiber. After a presentation of the sacred lotus flower and its meaning in Asian cultures, we will observe each stage of the creation of this rare fabric prized by great couturiers: harvesting the stems; spinning which consists of transforming the fibers into high quality yarn; weaving to arrive at the finished product; and finally the recycling of unused parts of the plant for medicinal, nutritional and cosmetic purposes.

Let's continue the road towards the nearby Phnom Krom mountain. From up there, we will have a beautiful view of all the surrounding rice fields. We can also visit the temple and pagoda of Phnom Krom, at the top of the mountain, before enjoying the view at sunset.

Siem Reap 📍

Siem Reap 📍
✈️ 400km - ⌚ 1h
Bangkok 📍
🚗 125km - ⌚ 2h
Amphawa 📍

- Transfer to Siem Reap International Airport from where we board our flight to Bangkok
- Arrived in the capital of the Kingdom of Siam, we meet our new team who will accompany us throughout our journey in Thailand.
We take the road to Amphawa, a small town south of Bangkok where you can dive into the heart of Thai life. Its floating market is the most authentic in the country, with a large majority of Thai visitors.
- At the beginning of the afternoon, we visit the memorial park of King Rama II, where we find superb teak buildings.
Continuation with the visit of Wat Bang Kung (Kai Bang Kung), commonly called the Banyan Tree Temple, since its chapel was covered by the roots and branches of the banyan tree.
In its gardens, we can notably observe life-size representations of wrestlers, commemorating the battle of Ayutthaya between Thailand and Burma at the end of the 13th century.
At nightfall, boat trip on the canal. Our boatman picks us up at the docks, and we set off on a mini-excursion to hunt for the fireflies that light up the waters.
This evening, we go to the quays, to taste the local flavors of the Floating Market, which is held on weekend evenings. Along the canals, many locals come to dine. Just like them, we order our little dishes directly from each boat: a dish of sautéed noodles, a few skewers of shrimp or squid, or even pre-cut mangoes.

Day 8. In the Mangroves

Amphawa 📍

- Early in the morning, we go to the Maeklong market, 4 times a day, the stalls of fruit and vegetables bend in a hurry as the train passes through the market.
Then, half-day of discovery of life in the mangroves. By boat, we set off to discover this fragile ecosystem. We discover during our excursion the way of life of fishermen (here the cockle fishing is done from a surfboard) and visit a shellfish farm.
Specialty lunch.
In the afternoon, visit the temple Wat Bang Khae Noi, located not far from the city. We appreciated its architecture, for which the building was entirely built in teak wood. Its walls are fully carved and depict episodes from Buddha's past lives.
