Days:	7
Price from:	945 USD International flight not included
Comfort:	★★★★★
Difficult:	★★★★☆
📌 Culture

A relaxing seven-day tour featuring India's so-called Golden Triangle (Delhi-Agra-Jaipur), with a rich backdrop of fascinating culture, monumental architecture and historical splendor, in addition to a memorable sojourn at rural and tranquil Karauli and stay at a heritage property of the erstwhile rulers of Karauli.

The itinerary is basically based around the Golden Triangle in which we take in the compelling sights of Delhi, Agra and Jaipur. The national capital forms the start and end points, and there is plenty of time to visit all of the major places of interest built through several centuries and includes the Red Fort, the Gandhi Memorial and the magnificent Jama Masjid.

Towards west, in the desert, Jaipur - the Pink City of India - basks in its magnificent past, bellicose history, renowned tradition and architectural elegance. Agra, at the same time, does not need any introduction as the seat of the world's prettiest building, the Taj.

HIGHLIGHTS * Experience a rich blend of the cultural, historical and natural heritage of northern India. * Stay In Heritage Regal Home With The Descendants Of The Former Rulers Of Karauli. * Sunrise visit to the magnificent Taj Mahal * Fatehpur Sikri - abandoned city of the Mughals * Jaipur sightseeing, local attractions and bazaars * Stunning and awe-inspiring Amer Fort
