THRILLS BY THE SCORE, SCENIC BEAUTY GALORE!

Our itinerary incorporates a relatively easy trek with several memorable walking experiences through the stunningly beautiful landscape with stops at villages and monasteries en route, providing a grand introduction to this exotic and quaint region.

We start with a flight from Delhi to Leh (3,500m) that offers untrammelled, aerial views of the vast Himalayan range and its magnificent, snowcapped peaks. Here, we spend two days visiting local Buddhist monasteries and exploring local markets and villages and acclimatizing ourselves to the altitude. Our trek starts from Taru, a small village close to Leh, and crosses Taru La, a pass at 4,200m, taking us through a deserted plateau. We continue past several Ladakhi villages where we witness a traditional and unchanged way of Life along with a glimpse of the contrasting scenery offered by this part of the Himalayan landscape: /lofty snow-clad and forbidding peaks astride wild and barren hillsides alongside charmingly quaint and pretty villages in valleys that blossom in summer.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Likir, famous for its 11th century monastery
- Thiksey – a yellow hat sect monastery bearing a strong resemblance to the Potala Palace in Lhasa
- Themisgam – a famous trekking sight
- Lamayuru – a famous monastery in Western Ladakh

Day 1. Arrival at airport

Delhi 📍

- We arrive at the international airport of Delhi at night. We get professional assistance in boarding our early morning flight to Leh after the traditional welcome by company's representative at Delhi airport.

Day 2-3. Drop to airport and board the flight to Leh

Delhi 📍

✈ 610km - ⌚ 1h 30m
Leh 📍

Delhi - Leh

- In the early morning flight from Delhi, the plane flies over the Himalayan Range providing amazing overhead view of the whole mountain range with gigantic glaciers and glaring peaks before it brings us to Leh, a fertile valley just to the north of the mighty Indus River (this flight is subject to appropriate weather and perfect flying conditions). Upon arrival we transfer to the hotel.

Day 2

- The rest of the day is free to relax and acclimatize to the altitude (3,500m). Late afternoon there is a gentle orientation walk in Leh and its bazaars. In the olden days Leh was an important trading center along the old Silk Route from China. The town is dominated by the nine- story Namgyal Palace whose faded grandeur has been likened to a mini version of the Potala Palace in Lhasa.

Day 3

- Today, in the sightseeing tour to three of the major gompas (monasteries) around Leh. we first drive to Thikse Monastery that belongs to Gelukpa order (Yellow hat). Perched on top of a hill its red and white buildings can be seen from miles. A recently built temple within this complex contains a magnificent image of the Future Buddha.
- Next we drive to Hemis Gumpa that belongs to Drukpa order (Red hat). It holds the distinction not only of being the biggest and the wealthiest monastery of Ladakh but also of very rich collections of ancient relics and the rare 17th century murals and the painted stone reliefs adorning the courtyard gallery making it a true UNESCO World Heritage Site.
- We continue our excursion and visit Matho monastery situated right across Thikse on the other side of Indus River. This monastery was founded in 16th century and it's an only monastery that belongs to Sakya order of Tibetan Monastery.

Day 4. Indus Valley (3,500-3,800m): Stok Palace, Shanti Stupa and transfer to Taru

Leh 📍
🚗 60km - ⌚ 1h 30m
Taru 📍

Leh - Taroo

- After breakfast we continue our sightseeing programme. Just across the river to the south of Leh lies Stok, a village in which the deposed royal family relocated after the loss of their throne. Stok Palace, where the royal family now lives, houses a museum of artifacts associated with this dynasty. Later we visit Shanti Stupa on the hilltop at Changspa. An exhausting steep uphill walk over the steps to the Stupa culminates in great views of the valley around and of the road to Khardung La - world's highest motor able pass at 5,602 mtrs.
- Later we drive to a small village called Taru, the starting point of our trek.

Day 5. Taru – Taru La (4,200m) – Umla – Nimu (3,700m)

Taroo 📍
17km - ⌚ 6h
Nimmoo 📍

Taroo - Nimmoo

- We begin our walk in a deserted valley with a gradual ascent towards the first pass, Taru La (4,200m). The trail gets steeper just before reaching the pass. Our hard work pays off with the breathtaking views from the top. It's then a long but gradual descent on a dusty trail to the village of Umla. We cross this beautiful village before arriving on a deserted plateau where we stop for lunch. Later we continue towards Nimu village through an unpopulated landscape.

Day 8. Likir – Sumdo – Yangtang (3,600m)

Likir 📍
14km - ⌚ 4h 20m
Yangtang 📍

Likir - Yangtang

- After breakfast we commence our trek to Yangtang via a small village of Sumdo (2-3 houses only), a gateway to beautiful views of the surrounding mountains. The walk is on a rough jeep-road with barely any traffic. We cross the small pass of Charatse La (3,700 m) to reach Yangtang. The fields of the village are visible from the top and before harvesting season the whole area looks like an oasis suspended in mid-air. We reach our camp set up either near the village school or at the river bank.

Day 10. Hemis Shukpachan – Ang – Themisgam (3,600m)

Hemis Shukpachan 📍
13km - ⌚ 4h 20m
Themisgam 📍

- We depart Hemis to reach Rongtil La - an almost flat walk to the chorten marking the pass. From here our second pass, Meptik La (3,750m) is visible with its multi-coloured mountain face. After a short steep descent to the base, Meptek La looks like a wall in front - but it can be climbed in half an hour by a slow leisurely walk. Our hard work pays off with the breathtaking views over the surrounding range of mountains from the top. A 90-minute gradual descent through the village of Ang brings us to a prosperous village, Themisgam where we visit a castle. Our camp is in the middle of this beautiful village.
